Winners of the Euronext Lisbon Awards 2024

The awards were presented during the annual Euronext event, this year with the support of Capterini

Notes to Editors:

Brief Description of Euronext Lisbon Awards Categories:

Equity Champion | Highlights the listed company with the highest total return, reflecting the evolution of stock prices and dividend payments. Eligible companies include those listed on markets managed by Euronext Lisbon, including foreign companies. Companies with a turnover velocity of less than 10%, as well as those with negative performance, are not eligible. This award is granted in two categories: Blue Chip and SME. For the purpose of this award, a company is considered Blue Chip if it has a market capitalization equal to or greater than €1,000 million euros at the end of the previous year, and considered SME if its market capitalization is below that amount.

Issuer of the Year | Recognizes the Issuing Entity that carried out the most relevant and visible operation in the Portuguese capital market.

Market Member | Acknowledges the member with the highest value (€) traded on Euronext Lisbon, in the securities identified in this category (Shares and Bonds).

Structured Finance | Recognizes the member that generated the highest growth in the securities identified in two categories: Derivatives: and Warrants and Certificates.

Book Runner | The winner is the lead financial intermediary with the highest number of issuances and amounts placed in the securities identified in this category, listed on Euronext Lisbon. Initial offerings and subsequent offerings are eligible. In syndicated placements, only the lead financial intermediaries are selected.

Research House | The winner is chosen based on the coverage level of shares listed on Euronext Lisbon, examining the number of companies evaluated and reports published by each Research House in the year under review, as well as the respective dedicated team and resources allocated for this purpose.

Law Firm | The most active law firm is selected, considering the amounts and number of equity and bond issuances listed on markets managed by Euronext Lisbon in which they were involved. If two or more firms are involved in the same issuance, both are considered.

Investment Fund Portugal | Recognizes the open investment fund / pension fund that has made the greatest effort in investing in shares listed on Euronext Lisbon segments, relative to its initial portfolio of domestic stocks. This award is developed in partnership with APFIPP, which contributes to the definition of criteria and provides technical support for the annual determination of the winner.

Finance for the Future | Open to all initiatives, including products, services, events, or others, distinguished by innovation in the Portuguese capital market. This category requires submission of applications.

Market Promotion Initiative | Recognizes the event promoting the Portuguese capital market with the greatest impact, evaluated as objectively as possible, including by criteria such as the number of participants, resources involved, and media coverage. This category requires submission of applications.

Media Article | Recognizes the best article published on the capital market, evaluated by criteria of relevance, timeliness, depth, and accuracy. Candidates must be journalists with a valid professional card at the time of publication (which should be attached to the application). Articles published in any format (print, online, video) that have some reference to the Portuguese capital market during the previous year are eligible. This category requires submission of applications.

Sustainable Finance | Recognizes the initiative, project, event, program, and/or related products that demonstrate the greatest positive impact on environmental, social, or governance issues. This category requires submission of applications.

Settlement & Custody | The financial intermediary that completed the highest number of equity and bond issuances registered in Euronext Securities Porto (and not admitted to trading), weighted by their respective amounts, is selected.
